PROFILE

Ten or more years in creative production, starting with editing, cinematography and production work, and including assistant direction. I moved into creative direction, brand content and marketing as my responsibilities grew. I still direct, shoot and stay hands-on with production, and I understand the brand and business objective behind the work. I use AI to make production faster and more scalable, not to replace creative judgment. Looking for Head of Creative & Marketing opportunities, and open to Creative Lead, Creative Director, Head of Creative, Creative Production Lead and Content Lead roles.
