PROFILE

Ten years in production, from editing and cinematography through assistant direction and production, into creative leadership. I direct, shoot, edit, and understand the brand and business behind the work. At Ujwala Group I was Creative Lead across three brands built from nothing, hiring the team, running the Shopify launch and the ad spend, and taking them to ₹48L+ in sales inside six months. Before that I directed content for India's first Mercedes-Maybach showroom, where the campaign work put showroom footfall up 50%. I use AI to make production faster, not to replace the craft. Looking for a Creative Lead role, also open to Creative Director, Head of Creative, Creative Production Lead and Content Lead.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Founder & Creative Lead | ProductionX · productionx.in

May 2026 - Present

Hyderabad, India

- A creative production studio. Film, photography, branding and brand content for early-stage brands.
- Creative direction, production planning and concept development on every project, from the first brief to delivery.
- AI-assisted content production for clients who need product, model or property imagery without a full shoot.
- Client management, pricing, pitching and vendors. Websites and digital experiences too, when a brief calls for one.

Creative Lead | Ujwala Group

Nov 2025 - May 2026

Hyderabad, India

- Walked into a warehouse of stock with no brand on any of it. Fashion, luxury furniture, smart-home. Built three identities from nothing: 1UJ Fashion, 1UJ The International Hub, and the parent Ujwala Group.
- Hired five people across social, content and inventory, trained them, and wrote the process they worked to.
- Took 600+ fashion SKUs and 150+ luxury and lifestyle lines from brand kit to a live Shopify store.
- Shot the entire e-commerce catalogue without a shoot. Every garment, then the premium furniture line including the Bugatti office, dining and bedroom ranges, generated and retouched to a standard that held up on the storefront and in paid social.
- Marketing sat under the same role. Ran the Google and Meta spend, 300+ qualified enquiries in the first four months, and ₹48L+ in sales across the three brands in six months.
